

21st This is Saturday night

but it does not seem like it to me, I am at Aunt Rachel's, we got here just after dinner, I was very glad to see her, she went with us over to see Cousin Beebie Bailey we took supper with her, and she came back to Aunt Rachel with us we are to stay here all night, I would love to see Pa and all the children it seems like I have been away more than a day I met a Lady on the cars today that I knew when I lived at Compton she was a Miss Thimmes her name now is Plummer there is a house here that is called Roberto folly he began the house and died crazy but the house is not finished yet

Aug 21st Morning

Pa and I went to Church with Aunt Rachel this morning the list was Exodus - 34 chap - 29 verse he spoke very pretty about Moses face shining and he knew it not untill the children of Israel told him, he said how often we could show by our lives that we were serving Christ and how often we do good by our lives and do not know it, untill some one will say it was by such a ones life that I became a Christian, I pray God that I may so live that I may do good to some one Mrs Wheeler was at Church she is an English lace maker 70 years old
