

14th March

The wind is still blowing but I do not think it is quite as cold as it was yesterday, Miss Nellie did not get to go to school, Ben went out to see the roads he says the snow is drifted as high as the hedge in some places, there has been no school this week, I had one of my poorly spells today, I wrote to Kinseys and Aunt Beulah and Cousin Beekie today

15th

15th This has been a very pretty day, Miss Nellie and Charlie went to school Mr Larnach was there but they had no school the snow has melted some today, but we cannot see that it has melted much where the drifts are, there is one pile in the garden that goes over the rails
16th This has been another nice day Miss Nellie and Charlie went to school but there was not enough there to have school so they came back. There
