

12th March

This has been a very stormy day it began snowing about bed time last night, blowed hard all night, the snow was drifted very much this morning Miss Hollie started to school in the carriage but could not get there had to come back, it has blowed hard all day and is still blowing and very cold, we have not had such a day this past winter it does not seem much like spring tonight

13th

It is very cold tonight has been cold all day, snowing part of the time and blowing all the time, we have not had our back shutters open since Sunday the snow is drifted very much Miss Hollie did not get to school today, I do not know how the roads are but they could not get out of the road gate
